Logistics Readiness Center, Rheinland-Pfalz is HERO OF THE WEEK

KAISERSLAUTERN, Germany – The 21st Theater Sustainment Command Hero of the Week is Mr. Willi Ziemann of the 405th Army Field Support Brigade, Logistics Readiness Center, Rheinland-Pfalz for the week of April 14-18, 2014.

Mr. Ziemann went above and beyond the call of the duty to deliver three pallets of excess equipment from Mannheim to fulfill shortages in the Kaiserslautern Military Community. He transported 20 pallets of Organization Clothing and Individual Equipment (OCIE) to the Theater

Logistics Support Center-Europe (TLSC-E) for redistribution. He continually accepts additional duties while also accomplishing his regular scheduled daily missions.

The 21st Theater Sustainment Command, Commanding General, recognizes each Hero of the Week as part of his Commander's Update with a Hero of the Week certificate. Mr. Timothy Wood, Director, Logistics Readiness Center, Rheinland-Pfalz states that, "Willi shares his expertise not only as a local national, but also a 10-year veteran in the German Army (Bundeswehr) beginning in September 1987," he stated. Mr. Ziemann was a Motor Vehicle Operator for 10-years before accepting a position with the 405th Army Field Support Brigade and continues to be an asset to the brigade and the Kaiserslautern Military Community.
